

FAA Conducting Fire Safety Training

Over the next three days, March 29-31, the Federal Aviation Administration is conducting fire and life safety testing in the old Air Traffic Control Tower in front of the CLT terminal. Smoke from a machine similar to a fogger may be visible. Please contact the FAA for additional questions.

https://cltairport.mediaroom.com/FAA_training