

Airport Job Fair Set for Saturday, Sept. 23

Charlotte Douglas International Airport, along with its tenants and partners, will host an Airport Job Fair from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Sept. 23, at the Urban League of Central Carolinas, 740 West Fifth St.

Participating employers will include the Aviation Department, American Airlines and concessionaires HMSHost and Paradies Largardère. Additional employers will be in attendance.

Hundreds of full- and part-time, seasonal and temporary positions are available from entry level to managerial with the Aviation Department and Airport partners.

Dress is business professional and onsite interviews and conditional offers may be available during the event. Attendees should bring multiple copies of their resumes. Visit cltairport.com/careers to view current Aviation Department and other job openings.

CLT is one of the largest employers in the Charlotte region, creating 151,575 jobs for North Carolina residents, according to the N.C. Department of Transportation. More than 20,000 people work for the Airport and its business partners.

As the seventh busiest airport worldwide for aircraft movements and 10th busiest in North America for passenger traffic, CLT offers a wide range of employment opportunities, including airline, retail, food and beverage, security and customer service.
